

Allocation of Parental Rights and Duties

Rights and Duties	Each has at all times	Each has during possession	Solely mother	Solely father	Independent	By agreement
Duty to inform the other conservators of the child in a timely manner of significant information concerning the health, education, and welfare of the child
Duty to inform the other conservators of the child by prescribed notice if the conservator resides with for at least thirty days, marries, or intends to marry a person the conservator knows is a registered sex offender or is currently charged with an offense that would require registration on conviction
Right to receive information from any other conservator of the child concerning the health, education, and welfare of the child
Right to confer with the other parent, to the extent possible, before making a decision concerning the health, education, and welfare of the child
Right of access to medical, dental, psychological, and educational records of the child
Right to consult with a physician, dentist, or psychologist of the child
Right to consult with school officials concerning the child's welfare and educational status, including school activities
Right to attend school activities
Right to be designated on the child's records as a person to be notified in case of an emergency
Right to consent to medical, dental, and surgical treatment during an emergency involving immediate danger to the health and safety of the child
Right to manage the child's estate to the extent the estate has been created by the parent or the parent's family
Duty of care, control, protection, and reasonable discipline of the child
Duty to support the child, including providing the child with clothing, food, shelter, and medical and dental care not involving an invasive procedure
Right to consent for the child to medical and dental care not involving an invasive procedure
Right to direct the moral and religious training of the child
Duty to make periodic child-support payments
Right to designate the primary residence of the child *without regard to geographic location OR *within
Right to consent to medical, dental, and surgical treatment involving invasive procedures
Right to consent to psychiatric and psychological treatment
Right to receive and give receipt for periodic payments for the support of the child and hold or disburse the funds for the benefit of the child
Right to represent the child in legal action and to make other decisions of substantial legal significance concerning the child
Right to consent to marriage and enlistment in armed services of U.S.
Right to make decisions concerning the child's education
Right to services and earnings of the child, except as provided by section 264.0111 of the Texas Family Code
Except when a guardian of the child's estate or a guardian or attorney ad litem has been appointed for the child, the right to act as an agent of the child in relation to the child's estate if the child's action is required by a state, the U.S., or a foreign government
Duty to manage the child's estate to the extent the estate has been created by community property or the joint property of the parents						